THOMAS BUTLER,
Bookseller and Stationer in Pall-Mall,
Proprietor of the curious Sett of High-bred Running-Horses, now publishing by Subscription.

BEGS leave to acquaint the Noblemen, Gentlemen, &c. that the first Eight Portraits are finished, and ready to deliver, according to his Proposals. They are taken from the Life, and curiously engraved upon Copper-Plates, with the just Pedigree and Performance of each Horse, &c. and by whom bred; also the Arms of each Nobleman to whom the Plates are inscribed by the Proprietor.

These are much superior to any Thing of the Kind ever done, and accounted genteel Furniture Prints, fit for any Nobleman's House, &c.

They may be had, painted in Oil upon Canvas, from 10 s. 6 d. each, to any Price, according to the Work. Also painted in Oil, and in Water-Colours, framed and glazed, from 6 s. 6 d. to 18 s. each.

As Noblemen and Gentlemen have been greatly imposed upon, by paying Subscription-Money

Prints of Running Horses

Money, and never receiving any Value, the Proprietor at a very great Expence, has finished these eight Prints, according to his Proposal, which is One Guinea to be paid upon the Delivery of eight Prints, in Sheets; therefore most humbly hopes this Method will be one Inducement to encourage the Subscription, which Favour will be most thankfully acknowledged, by,

Their most humble Servant,

THO. BUTLER.

☞ The next Eight are in different Attitudes, and a new Taste, which I hope will give a general Satisfaction.

At the said BUTLER's Shop is sold, the greatest Variety of Paintings, Prints of Horses, and other sporting Pieces.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman, who has Occasion to have any Horse, either single or in the Stable, or any other sporting Piece, may have them exactly and expeditiously painted or drawn by applying to the said BUTLER.

He has also just imported, a curious Collection of French Prints, the best Impressions, and by the best Masters.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are taken in, and Orders for the Portraits will be punctually obey'd, by applying
